

Estonia Weekly:

EU Parliament and Inequality

Estonia | Week 43 | Month 10
June 24th - June 30th, 2024

New observations this week: 8
Main channel: Facebook

Main keywords:

Georgia, EU, Taxes, Social Democrats,
Minister of Social Protection,
EU Parliament, Sanctions, Putin

Main narratives:

- Anti-EU sentiment;
- General anti-government sentiments.

Overview:

This reporting week, they targeted various issues, mainly focusing on Kaya Kallas's acceptance to work in the EU parliament. They also posted general anti-government sentiments and concentrated on new taxes and income inequality. They also focused on the latest list of sanctions against Russia and the government's incompetence. They also posted about how the Estonian media focuses more on international news than showing the hardships the Estonian people face.

